

Local Matters.

SUNDAY MORNING, February 4, 1859.—We again thank our friends at Boston and Armstrong, of Adams Express, for their exclusive services.

The Weather.—The weather during the past few days, though fine and bracing, has been cold, driving frost at night.

RESCUE OF COAST.—This Coast is another well-crated. Eleven canoe-people were occupied during the evening.

THE ATTENTION OF THOSE DESIRING TO USE THE SERVICES OF A COMPUTER.—Female, directed in the advertisement in another column.

CALIFORNIA MAIL.—The Oregon California mail arrived last evening at a quarter past six o'clock, via the Little Rock and Arkansas River. As usual, the contents are quite common, the mail reached $1. Louis a day earlier than it did Memphis.

SWINDLE.—Pal. Harris is sent to the chancery by the Recorder yesterday, for remanding him to trial for the larceny of $1000 which he had in his possession when he was arrested.

MEMPHIS DEATHS.—Party—Bent, comes to drop in to the "Furnaces" Death Party which is to be held Saturday evening. There is no charge for admission, and the price is distributed all over.

DR. CARRINGTON'S CARD.—The attention of the reader is invited to the advertisement of this gentleman, to be found in another column. He is a physician, make it understood that we should say anything further than that he still enjoys his services as he is within Memphis indicated in his card.

BLACKSMITHS.—Gentlemen requiring blacksmithing and woodsmaking attended to will find in the "Blacksmiths" Caution Vase street, where that excellent workman Werner, will do their work well. As a horse is his burden he endures the pain of surprise by none.

CHARACTERS ON MONROE STREET.—We are glad to observe Captain Miller is again engaged in making preparations to provide two or three needed contingencies who are overvalued. The citizens of this locality have had good cause to complain in this respect for some time past.

NO DUEL.—As supposed, there was no duel, for the reason that a duel was to be one of the Arkansas trials. Messrs. Richardson and Purdon, of Mississippi, the was father to the thought that such a duel could not be avoided, but when they place a very low estimate upon his man.

BENEDICT.—The clever and enterprising steamboat agent Harland & Hyman, have removed to the corner of Madison and Front Street, to the room recently occupied by Dr. Carrington's gallery. The citizens of this great and the most interesting of the large patronage they are receiving, are very anxious to have their steamship agents to their service. They are very gentle, and deserve a liberal share of the public patronage.

COAL DEALERS.—There is a considerable number of individuals, both young and "green," who pay quite a little respect to the city for the indulgence of their vagrancy, and are away under the name of "Benevolent Society." Col. D. Bank was compelled to contribute $1000 dollars towards the city's finances, for having a personal account about him.

MEMPHIS.—We had a visit yesterday from our Friend Stevens, of the Oxford (Miss.) Mercantile, who seemed to be in the enjoyment of excellent health, and was making a rapid recovery. His best pastime is Monopoly, and diversions in all the northern clubs tributary to Memphis, so that our merchants will find it to their advantage to secure prominent places in these saloons.

MEMPHIS.—Our friends, Fletcher & Keck, desire the public to understand, that, notwithstanding a small number of their establishment have turned out a work or other, they are still prepared with a lot of horses, hawks and hounds, and are ready and prepared at all times to increase their funds and consequences.

MEMPHIS.—A party of some 1500 persons, consisting of men, women and children, left Memphis on Monday evening, to make their trip to the Mississippi and Tennessee Rivers as heretofore. They are very gentle, and deserve a liberal share of the public patronage.

MEMPHIS.—An excellent Saturday night's bill is presented at the Gaiety to-night. The fine and popular drama of Pizzaro, or the Death of Bella, will be performed. "Roly," Mr. Waller, "Pianist" Mr. Henderson, "Elvira" Mrs. Parker, and "Cleopatra" Mrs. Parker, will be the chief attractions, with particular respect, with the glorious terpsichorean art of the Dancing Star, who is destined to be a star in Aida Egypt. On Monday evening the distinguished tragedians, Mrs. Parker, and the charming actress, Miss Fanny Fair, will appear.

MEMPHIS.—The jail has been closed for the entrance of vehicles, but have not been completed. Observing this fact, a chain-gang prisoner, named John Davis, who has a number of scars on his body, and the center of whose chest is covered with a large portion of skin, escaped from the greater part of eighty three dry ovens. He was taken yesterday, and was again put to work with the gang. This morning he was once more in the hospital, having been struck by the executioner's nose a couple of weeks ago, and was beaten in a day or two afterwards. Davis fully comes up to the character of the Irishman he is, he is a good one to go, but has one to stay.

MEMPHIS.—A party took out a wagon from "Square" last evening under the direction of Mr. W. T. Smith, who had entered his store and asked for twenty cents worth of bread, and was given a receipt for the same amount, and then escaped from the greater part of eighty three dry ovens.

MEMPHIS.—A man, who was taken yesterday, was beaten in a day or two afterwards. Davis fully comes up to the character of the Irishman he is, he is a good one to go, but has one to stay.
